To whom it may concern,
I strongly object to the continuense of Makah Indian whaling and hope you'll deny current and future petitions of this barbaric activity, which only lines the pockets of Japanese fishing interests rather than Makah sustinance.
Ilive less than 100 miles from the Makah reservation and have yet to meet a tribe member that eats any of the whale catch.
The Makah's would benefit more by chartering tour trips to view these noble and intellegent creatures rather than killing them.

Please do all you can to close the loop-hole that allows this process to continue.

Respectfully

Dave Alwood
